Stoop to my weakness, mighty as Thou art, And make me love Thee as I ought to love;
I ask no dream, no prophet ecstasies, No sudden rending of the vail of clay.
No angel visitant, no op'ning skies; But take the dimness of my soul away.
Hast Thou not bid us love Thee, God and King?
All, all Thine own, soul, heart and strength and mind;
I see Thy cross; there teach my heart to cling; O let me seek Thee, and O let me find!
Teach me to love Thee, as Thine angels love, One holy passion filling all my frame;
The kindling of the heav'n descended Dove,
My heart an altar, and Thy love the flame. Amen.

Sermon—"Eruditio et Religio" Dr. Albert C. Outler

PROFESSOR H. E. MYERS, Presiding

Organ—Offrande Musicale in C — Maleingreau

Larghetto — Rousseau

Call to Worship—To Thee, O Lord, Do I Lift Up My Soul — Kalinnikoff-Christiansen

To Thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul
For Thou art my strength and my hope.
I trust in Thee, O Lord God.

Hymn—Holy, Holy, Holy (Nicaea) — Dykes

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Laudamus Te — Carl F. Mueller

Holy God, we praise Thy name. Lord of all, we bow before Thee:
All in heav'n above adore Thee; All on earth Thy pow'r proclaim.
Infinite Thy vast domain, Everlasting is Thy reign.
Hark, celestial hymn: Holy, holy, holy, Lord!
Choirs are raising: Holy, holy, holy, Lord!
In unceasing chorus praising, Cherubim and seraphim
Fill the heav'n's with sweet accord: Holy, holy, holy, Lord!

Hymn—God of Our Fathers (National Hymn) — Warren

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Recessional — DeKoven

JOHN R. LYLE, Soloist

God of our fathers, known of old, Lord of our far-flung battle line,
Beneath whose awful Hand we hold Dominion over palm and pine;
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet, Lest we forget! Lest we forget!

The tumult and the shouting dies, The Captains and the Kings depart.
Still stands thine ancient sacrifice, An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet, Lest we forget! Lest we forget!

Far call'd, our navies melt away, On dune and head-land sinks the fire.
Lo, all our pomp of yesterday Is one with Nineveh and Tyre!
Judge of the nations, spare us yet, Lest we forget! Lest we forget!

If drunk with sight of pow'r we loose Wild tongues that have not Thee in awe,
Such boasting as the Gentiles use, Or lesser breeds without the law,
law in awe,
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet, Lest we forget! Lest we forget!

CHORUS:

For heathen heart that puts her trust In reeking tube and iron shard
All valiant dust that builds on dust, And guarding calls not Thee to guard,
For frantic boast and foolish work, Thy mercy on Thy people, Lord!
A-men.

Offertory Response

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"The Responsibilities of Privilege" — Bishop James E. Freeman

Benediction

Response by Choir — Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord lift His countenance upon you, and give you peace;
The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Offraude Musicale in G — Maleingreau

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, has arranged the following program for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, September 22, at 4:00 o'clock, in the University Chapel:

Felix Mendelssohn — Prelude and Fugue in D Minor

For about seventy-five years after the death of Bach the works of this great composer lay practically unknown to the public. It was largely the effect of the publicity given to Bach by the youthful Mendelssohn that such masterpieces as the Mass in B Minor and the great organ Preludes and Fugues became known. In appreciation of the forms of Bach Mendelssohn wrote three Preludes and Fugues in the old style using his own harmonic idiom. Perhaps his more familiar organ works are the six sonatas which are typically romantic.

George Frederic Handel — Water Music Suite
Bourree
Air
Hornpipe

These three short numbers are from the well-known Water Music Suite for orchestra written, it is said, to appease the king on the occasion of one of his cruises on the Thames. The music exemplifies the charm of eighteenth-century dance music.

Enrico Bossi — Hour of Consecration

This music is exalted. It suggests an hour of personal communion alone in a great cathedral where every physical sight and sound have a divine significance.

Edward MacDowell — To a Water-Lily

Franz Liszt — Prelude and Fugue on B-A-C-H

The theme of this piece consists of the letters of the name of Bach, the H being the German spelling of our B flat. This theme was used very frequently when the works of Bach were first becoming popular. It is extremely interesting to see what a superb art-work can grow out of such a simple theme of four notes.

DUKE UNIVERSITY PRESBYTERIAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION TO HOLD "DUTCH" BANQUET

The Duke University Presbyterian Student Association will hold a "Dutch" banquet for the Presbyterian faculty members and the adult Presbyterians of Durham on Monday, September 23, at 7:00 p.m., in Room 204X, West Campus Union. Musical numbers will be rendered by Professor Henry A. Bruinsma and Miss Evelyn Barnes, and the main address will be given by President W. P. Few.

Tickets will be 75c per person and may be obtained at the door.

GERMAN TUTORING CLASS

All special and graduate students interested in a tutoring class for a reading knowledge of German, are requested to meet on Tuesday evening, September 24, at 7:30 o'clock, in Room 204, Page Building.

LAW SCHOOL FACULTY MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Faculty of the School of Law on Tuesday afternoon, September 24, at 4:15 o'clock, in Dean Horack's Office, Law School.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

A particular request is made of members of the faculty and the University community generally. Please get any notice for publication in the Calendar into the Public Relations Office, 103 University Union, not later than 10:00 a.m., on Friday. Aria Semplice
Introitus

Call to Worship—To Thee, O Lord, Do I Lift Up My Soul Kalinnikoff-Christiansen

To Thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul
For Thou art my strength and my hope.

Hymn—Come Thou Almighty King (Italian Hymn) Giardini

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Arise, O Lord! Hoffmeister-Deis

Arise, O Lord; let not man prevail:
Let the heathen be judged in thy sight. And be turned into hell.
The wicked be turned into hell, even the nations that forget God.
Put them in fear, O Lord; let the nations know themselves to be but men.
For they that know thy name will put their trust in thee.
And thou, Lord, wilt not forsake them that seek thee.
Arise, O Lord; let not man prevail.

Hymn—A Charge To Keep I Have (Boylston) Lowell Mason

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Built On a Rock Christiansen

Built on a Rock the Church doth stand, Even when steeples are falling;
Crumbled have spires in every land. Bells still are chiming and calling;
Calling the young and old to rest, But above all the soul distrest.
Longing for rest everlasting. Bells are chiming, calling.
Surely in temple made with hands, God, the most high, is not dwelling.
High above earth His temple stands, All earthly temples excelling;
Yet he whom heavens cannot contain, Chose to abide on earth with men.
Built in our bodies His temple.
Built on the Rock the Church doth stand Even when steeples are falling.
Crumbled have spires in every land, Bells still are chiming,
On the Rock, on the Rock the Church doth stand, Even when steeples are falling.
Bells are chiming, calling, are calling.

Offertory Response

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"Facing the Facts" Dr. Frank S. Hickman

Benediction

Response by Choir Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord lift His countenance upon you, and give you peace;
The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Premier Choral Andriessen

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

The following program has been arranged for the organ recital to be given in the University Chapel, Sunday afternoon, September 29, at 4:00 o'clock, by Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist:

Henry Purcell — Toccata in A

Purcell, who lived in the late seventeenth century, was contemporary with the earlier years of Bach. This Toccata was considered so much like Bach, even as late as the nineteenth century, that it was included in the great collection of the complete works of that master. The original lies in the British Museum. Purcell was probably the greatest European composer of his time, and the English people are very proud of him.

Like several Bach works called Toccata, this consists of a very lively fugue as well as the toccata proper.

Benjamin Cosyn — The Goldfinch

Cosyn was an organist and composer in early seventeenth-century England. His greatest fame exists in the collection of virginal music which he made and published. One of the ideals of composers of this period was to attempt to imitate the sounds of nature. Imitation was the highest goal of art. Thus there are to be found many short works with titles of a nature similar to this.

Alexander Gretchaninoff — Autumn Song

Johann Sebastian Bach — Prelude and Fugue in D Minor

The Prelude is slow and dignified, but with a definite emotional stimulus. There is no pedal part. The Fugue has a spritely subject which has quite an extensive development. The sections are well marked and the rhythm is very prominent. In fact, the Fugue might well have been written by a nineteenth-century artist.

Joseph Rheinberger — Vision

This is a short work by a composer of the later nineteenth century who has a very fine reputation in England especially for his series of twenty organ sonatas.

Powell Weaver — The Squirrel

Sigfrid Karg-Elert

Symphonic Chorale: Ah, Jesus Christ With Us Abide

From the tremendous output of Karg-Elert it is difficult to select what could be considered as his best works. The three symphonic chorales are the most pretentious, but perhaps some of the shorter works are more typical. This follows a plan somewhat similar of that of the Franck Third Chorale. It has an allegro first section, followed by a shorter slow movement of extreme beauty, closing with an agitated movement growing into a big climax.

Olivier Messiaen — Apparition de l'Église éternelle

THE COLLECT

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love Thee, and worthily magnify Thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. A-men.

THE GENERAL CONFESSION

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; we acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we, from time to time, most grievously have committed by thought, word, and deed, against Thy Divine Majesty, provoking most justly Thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto us; the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for Thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please Thee in newness of life, to the honour and glory of Thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. A-men.

Offertory Response

Obligato by Miss Marjorie Davis and Miss Helen Willis

Listen to the lambs!
All a-crying,
He shall feed his flock like a shepherd,
And carry the young lambs in his bosom.
Ah! Listen! Listen to the lambs, listen to the lambs.

Offertory Response

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

The following program has been arranged by Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, October 6, at 4:00 o'clock, in the University Chapel:

Johannes Brahms Chorale Preludes:
My Inmost Heart Doth Yearn
My Faithful Heart Rejoices
Deck Thyself Out, O My Soul

Not until late in his life did Brahms write any music for the organ. Then, in his opus 122, he gave all his rich experience and mature skill to the creation of eleven chorale-preludes for the organ. These are in the style of Bach, yet enhanced by the full flavor of romanticism of which Brahms is capable.

Johann Sebastian Bach Toccata in F

In sharp contrast to the style of the chorale, the toccata is, in its usual sense, a showpiece. Bach undoubtedly used his toccatas on the occasion of a church festival or the dedication of some new organ. This particular work is one of his greatest in this type. The first section is a canon at the octave over a pedal-point followed by the inversion of this same canon this time over a dominant rather than a tonic pedal-point. The main section consists of an arpeggio theme rising from the pedal part through two statements on the manuals. After this theme has been passed about from one part to another for some time, the very constancy of the rhythm serves to build an emotional climax not of surface feelings such as a romantic piece would, but an emotion which grows out of the depths.

Robert Schumann Sketch in F Minor

This is an attractive sketch for organ by a composer who wrote little for the instrument. It exudes romanticism in its true essence while yet retaining a simple and intelligible form.

Joseph Clokey Legende

Sigfrid Karg-Elert Legend

A legend is a story, often telling of miracles or wonders, handed down from the past. These two stories are of quite different situations, each leading along an almost formless path of the imagination.

Through assembly they are introduced to the traditions and standards of the University. Students coming from nearly every state in the United States and from a wide variety of backgrounds and preparation meet in Memorial Hall daily for the purpose of developing identity as Carolina students and members of the University community.

What takes place in assembly is important to every member of the faculty and the University administration. The success of that program is the interest of everyone working with students in this institution.

In the interest of making this program successful you are invited to attend the exercises. There are seats available for faculty members in the rear of the auditorium. If you want to see the kind of orientation program provided, and if you want to help out the daily occasion by coming into it when you can, you are welcome.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, has arranged the following program for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, October 13, at 4:00 o'clock, in the University Chapel:

Johann Sebastian Bach Prelude and Fugue in B flat

Of the eight short preludes and fugues which Bach wrote for his students to practice on, this is undoubtedly the most gay. It is logical and simple, making a direct and straightforward impression upon the listener.

Johann Sebastian Bach Come Sweet Death

One cannot imagine a song in which the words are more aptly described in musical language than this lovely lyric. It is irrefutable evidence of the great emotional warmth of this eighteenth-century composer.

Joseph Rheinberger Passacaglia from Sonata VIII

The Passacaglia is one of the most widely used forms for organ music, probably due to its adaptability to a recurrent theme in the bass part. Most organists think of the great Bach Passacaglia at once when this term is mentioned. However, there are those admirers of Rheinberger, especially in England, who claim that this work is as great a masterpiece.

Louis Vierne Berceuse
Scherzetto

Vierne is the founder of the modern French style of organ composition. He builds upon the works of Franck and extends the Franck methods of chromaticism. This style is exceedingly well developed by a great number of almost contemporary artists.

These two works are short and uncomplicated examples of church music from the "Twenty-four Pieces." The harmonic interest is well sustained.

Philip James Andante Cantabile from Sonata I

James is one of the rapidly increasing group of American composers who are developing a true American style which critics have been longing to acclaim for several generations. There are traces of the European tradition throughout but there is something unmistakably American in the treatment of the materials.

Hendrik Andriessen Premier Choral

For many years Andriessen has been organist in the cathedral at Amsterdam. This work was completed in 1913, yet it is quite definitely contemporary in its harmonic structure.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, has arranged the following program for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, October 20, at 4:00 p.m., in the University Chapel:

Johann Sebastian Bach Toccata and Fugue in D Minor

The Toccata is typical of eighteenth-century pieces of that name. It is primarily for show, yet Bach has added effective dramatic qualities which make this Toccata more than a "touch piece." The Fugue is quite perfectly composed with very little heaviness or darkness which are frequently associated with works of this title. Rather it is serious but happily so. At the close Bach brings back the mood of the Toccata in the coda-like section. This return idea is not often employed at the close of a fugue.

Johann Kuhnau Chorale: O Sacred Head, Once Wounded

Kuhnau was Bach's predecessor as cantor of St. Thomas' School at Leipzig. Undoubtedly his works greatly influenced the later composer—especially in the field of choral music. Kuhnau wrote only a very few organ works, mostly chorales.

Johann Pachelbel Chorale: From Heaven on High

Another of Bach's predecessors from southern Germany was Pachelbel, who was the teacher of Sebastian's older brother, Christoph, who in turn taught the young Bach his first music. The line of influence is here directly traced and his early works distinctly bear the marks of Pachelbel's genius.

The chorale melody is here in the pedal part.

César Franck Chorale in A Minor

The comparison of the early chorale treatment with that of Franck in the late nineteenth century is extremely interesting. No longer is this merely an elaboration of the chorale melody, but a more extended work in which Franck delivers an introductory theme which he uses extensively later, even before the appearance of the chorale tune. This is then offered in a simple fashion but with chromatic harmonies. There is then a return to the first theme. Another new idea in slow tempo changes the character of the work temporarily. Very unobtrusively while this is being presented, the main theme enters and gradually supersedes the slow theme. The final section brings back the first two themes in greatly intensified manner. It is quite evident that the form of this work is not at all classic, yet it is admirably adapted to the materials presented.

Louis Vierne Clair de Lune
Hymne au Soleil

The influence of Franck can be readily perceived in these two selections from the second volume of the Pièces de Fantaisie.

MEETING OF THE DUKE BAR ASSOCIATION, OCTOBER 25

Offertory Anthem—Lost in the Night Christiansen

Soprano Soloist: Mrs. A. E. Stanley

Lost in the night. Lost in the night doth the heathen yet languish,
Longing for morning the darkness to vanish.
Plaintively sighing, Christ is coming soon.
He is coming soon. Sorrowing brother in darkness yet dwelling,
He is coming soon. Light o'er the land is beaming,
Rivers are streaming Millions yet sigh for the Savior, redeeming.
Must he be vainly awaiting the morrow? He is coming soon.
Will not day come soon? He is coming soon.

Offertory Response

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

The following program has been arranged by Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, October 27, at 4:00 p.m., in the University Chapel:

François Couperin Fugue on the Kyrie

Louis, François and Charles Couperin were the founders of a musical line which was the equivalent, in France, of the Bach family in Germany. The three brothers were pupils of Chambonnières, and all three brothers became organists of the church of St. Gervais in Paris. In this position their successors were Nicolas, son of François, and François (le Grand), son of Charles. This latter composed a book of "Pièces d'Orgue consistantes en deux Messes," 1690. This Fugue on the Kyrie is taken from the first of these masses, and is constructed on the Kyrie of the Gregorian Mass "Cunctipotens."

Louis Nicolas Clérambault Prelude

Clérambault was born in Paris in 1676; his father was one of the 24 violons du Roi, and his teacher was Audre Raison. He was organist at St. Sulpice and later succeeded his teacher at the church of the Jacobins. He died in 1749.

Johann Sebastian Bach Fantaisie and Fugue in C Minor

The Fantaisie is one of Bach's loveliest slow movements. The Fugue builds up to several climaxes of intensity but throughout there is only one dramatic climax brought about by the constant steady flow of notes which creates an irresistible rhythm.

César Franck Fantaisie in A

Here Franck creates some of his most noble and sublime emotions, undoubtedly rooted in the church of St. Clotilde in Paris.

Marcel Dupré Magnificat V
Poème Héroïque

The sub-title to this magnificat is: He remembring his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel; as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed forever.

The stirring Poème Héroique was composed for the inauguration of the new organ in the new Cathedral of Verdun by Dupré in 1935, where it received its first performance with Dupré at the organ. It was first arranged for organ with trumpets, trombones and drum. The work cotains a sturdy marching theme, simple, rugged, and irresistible, which closely links it in spirit to the same national school which produced the admirable French National Defile March, "Sambre et Meuse."

Vision Rheinberger

Call to Worship—Prayer Guion-Downing

Lord, in this hour of tumult, Lord, in this night of fears,
Keep open, oh, keep open My eyes, my heart, my ears.
Not blindly, not in hatred, Lord, let me do my part;
Keep open, oh, keep open, Dear Lord, My eyes, my mind, my heart!
Hear Thou my pleading, Hear Thou my prayer! Lord,
Hear Thou my pleading! Lord God, Hear Thou my pleading,
Hear Thou my prayer! Lord, in this hour of tumult,
Lord, in this night of fear, Keep open, oh keep open my ears.

Hymn—When Morning Gilds the Sky (Laudes Domini) Barnby

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—By Babylon's Wave Gounod

Here by Babylon's wave, Tho' heathen hands have bound us,
Tho' afar from our land, The pains of death surround us;
Zion! thy mem'ry still, In our hearts we are keeping,
And still we turn to thee, Our eyes all sad with weeping.
Thro' our harps that we hung on the trees, Goes the low wind wearily moaning.
Mingles the sad note of the breeze, With voice as sad of sigh and groaning.
When mad with wine our foe rejoices, When unto their altars they throng,
Loud for mirth then they call, A song! A song of Zion sing, lift up your voices.
Lord, tho' the victor command In captivity sad and lowly,
How shall we raise thy song so holy, That we sung in our fatherland.
O Lord, tho' the victor command How shall we raise thy song so holy,
That we sung in our fatherland? O Lord! Tho' the victor command
How shall we raise thy song so holy, far, ah, far from our fatherland! Jerusalem!
If we forget thee, Let our hands remember not their pow'r.
And our tongues be silent from that hour, Jerusalem!
Let our tongue be silent from that hour, Jerusalem,
If we forget thee. Woe unto thee, Babylon, mighty city,
For the day of thy fall is nigh! For thee no hope!
For thee no pity, Tho' loud thy wail riseth on high!
Then shalt thou, desolate, forsaken, Be torn from thy fames and thy thrones,
In that day, in that day shall thy babes be taken, taken and dashed against the stones
Then unto thee, O Babylon the mighty, be woe!

Hymn—O Jesus, Once a Nazareth Boy (All Saints) Cutler

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Knight of Bethlehem Leroy Wetzel

There was a Knight of Bethlehem, Whose wealth was woes and sorrows,
His men at arms Were little lambs, His trumpeters were sparrows—
His castle was a wooden cross On which He hung so high—
His helmet, His helmet was a crown, a crown of thorns,
Whose crest did reach the sky.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may he
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"The Authority of Jesus" Dr. Frank S. Hickman

The Lord lift His countenance upon you, and give you peace;
The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and he gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Chorale-prelude on "Andernach" Willan

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

The following program has been arranged for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, November 3, at 4:00 p.m., in the University Chapel, by Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist:

William Faulkes Festival Prelude on Ein' Feste Burg

The chorale-prelude is usually an organ composition based on a true chorale. This is correctly called a chorale-prelude, for it uses the old tune by Martin Luther "A Mighty Fortress is Our God." The tune is developed in true Bach style modified by nineteenth-century harmonies.

Johann Sebastian Bach I Call to Thee, Lord Jesus Christ

This chorale-prelude is not developed, as are many; rather the melody is stated only once with new voice-parts added which give it an ethereal quality.

Percy Whitlock Chorale from Sonata in C Minor

A chorale, this one original with this composer, is here treated in a very different manner, as the foundation of a set of variations. Whitlock, a contemporary English composer, has used this as the last movement of his sonata. There is a great quantity of material used in combination in a free way with the chorale melody. It seems to he well unified in spite of this profuseness.

Gustave Ferrari The Lonely Pagoda
A Tropical Pantomime

In quite a contrasting mood to the preceding numhers, these two sketches are rather impressionistic. They are definitely secular in idea and in treatment, affording a light touch to the program as a whole. "Painted on a Chinese Screen" is the title of the suite from which the numhers are taken.

Lynnwood Farnam Toccata on "O Filii et Filiae"

The toccata, based on an ancient Gregorian tune of the Easter season, is extremely hrief but brilliant. Farnam was one of America's greatest organists.

"THE BAKER'S WIFE," ROLLICKING FRENCH COMEDY, FEATURED AT QUADRANGLE, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6

Conceded to be one of the outstanding entertainment highlights of the year, and praised to the skies by public and press, "The Baker's Wife" has been selected to inaugurate Quadrangle Pictures' November and December entertainment calendar on Wednesday, November 6. This film, now showing in its tenth month at the Globe Theatre in New York, is the longest-run picture of the year and has gained the distinction of being the "best French film in five years."

The National Board of Review comments say "'The Baker's Wife' is really a virtuous film. Its sauce is scandalous, but underneath it is very solid meat indeed."

John Erskine, famous American author, has constructed a most brilliant English translation so that this film is thoroughly understood by every person who sees it.

Organ—Ave Maris Stella Liszt
Adagio

Call to Worship—Prayer Guion-Downing

Lord, in this hour of tumult, Lord, in this night of fears,
Keep open, oh, keep open My eyes, my heart, my ears.
Not blindly, not in hatred, Lord, let me do my part;
Keep open, oh, keep open, Dear Lord, My eyes, my mind, my heart!
Hear Thou my pleading, Hear Thou my prayer! Lord,
Hear Thou my pleading! Lord God, Hear Thou my pleading,
Hear Thou my prayer! Lord, in this hour of tumult,
Lord, in this night of fear, Keep open, oh keep open my ears.

Hymn—God the Omnipotent (Russian Hymn) Alexis F. Lvov

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—A Prayer for Peace Alfred H. Johnson

Contralto Soloist: Miss Evelyn Barnes

For peace, to Thee, O God, we pray, Disperse the battle's wild array;
Beneath the blessing of Thy hand, May we as men and brothers stand.
For peace, to Thee, O God, we pray, Too long have earth's broad skies been gray;
Out of the holocaust of war O lead us, God, forever more.
Not pennons, standards, flags we raise to Thee, O God, but songs of praise;
On bended knee we ask for light to live, O God, within the Right.
In peace, O may we understand The glorious earth as one great land,
With Thee as Ruler, and, dear Lord, Eternal Truth the only sword!
For peace, to Thee, O God, we pray, for peace. Amen.

Hymn—All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name (Coronation) Holden

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—The Heavens Are Declaring Beethoven

Soloists: Donald Somerville and William Page

The heav'ns are declaring the Lord's endless glory,
Thro' all the earth His praise is found.
The seas re-echo the marvellous story,
O man, repeat that glorious sound.
The starry host He orders and measures,
He fills the morning's golden springs;
He wakes the sun from his night curtained slumbers,
Oh, man adore the King of Kings; Oh man adore the King of Kings.

What power and splendor, and wisdom and order,
In Nature's mighty plan unroll'd!
Thro' space and time to infinity's border.
What wonders vast and manifold
The earth is His, and the heav'ns o'er it bending
The Maker in His works behold!
He is, and will be, Thro' ages unending,
A God of strength and love untold.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"Inheritance and Possession" Dr. Elbert Russell, Dean of the School of Religion

Benediction

Response by Choir

The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord lift His countenance upon you, and give you peace;
The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—O Gloria in Excelsis Reger

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, has arranged the following program for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, November 10, at 4:00 o'clock, in the University Chapel:

Garth Edmundson Prelude on "Pange Lingua Glorioso"
Prelude on "Ecce Jam Noctis"

A resident of Newcastle, Pennsylvania, Edmundson has given the organ profession some of the best of its music written in this country in recent years. Among his works may be mentioned the Apostolic Symphony, two Christmas suites, and several works based upon ancient themes. The two melodies used here are Gregorian.

Charles Marie Widor Allegro Vivace from Symphonie V

If one were to select any single movement from the ten symphonies of Widor to call the best, it would have to be this one. There are tremendous vitality, dramatic power, and pleasing contrasts to create a work unified and balanced.

Franz Liszt Ave Maria

One usually associates brilliance and fire with Liszt. Yet he possessed a certain calm and peace which presumably sprang from his steadfast faith in God. Here one is permitted a glimpse of that mysticism which permeates his quieter moods.

César Franck Chorale in B Minor

This, the second of Franck's three great chorales for organ, is the most powerful, yielding a depth of religious ecstasy. Written at the close of an extremely busy life, the work shows the benefit of years of acquaintance with the organ and with the forms used in this period.

Hendrik Andriessen Toccata

Striking boldly into the opening years of the twentieth century one finds the organist of the Amsterdam cathedral a bit touched with the brutal realism of the day. This work was written in 1917 during the World War.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

The following program has been arranged by Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, November 17, at 4:00 o'clock, in the University Chapel:

Johann Sebastian Bach By the Waters of Babylon

Toward the end of his career Bach gathered together eighteen of his chorales which he considered the best to have them published. They were considerably revised and improved upon before being sent to the publisher. By the Waters of Babylon is written for four parts in this setting.

Franz Schubert Allegro Moderato from Symphony in B Minor

The Unfinished Symphony remains one of the most popular works of any great orchestra. Schubert was gifted beyond most composers with the power to create flowing lyrical melody. This work, even though in a classical sonata-form, is a series of beautiful melodies put together in a traditional manner.

Claude Debussy Nuages

Debussy was the first of the great impressionists. To comprehend an impressionistic work one should try to place himself in the mood aroused by the work, the mood to bring no definite picture but merely a mood which any type of art might create. So Debussy here is not attempting to picture clouds but to create a mood which he experienced when he saw clouds.

Paul Hindemith Sonata II

Very modernistic in style this sonata is divided into three movements, the first active, virile, with a semblance of familiar form; the second slow with a rhythm like that of a siciliano; the third fugal but with such strange melodic and harmonic ideas that it is at first difficult to follow the fugue itself. Upon repeated hearings, however, the ideas take more definite shape and become intelligible.

In addition to being chief of the Washington Bureau of Newsweek, he writes under his own name a column of comment on public affairs, which is published in the Washington Post and many other newspapers.

Members of the University community and the public are cordially invited to attend the lecture.

Anl praise now to Christ Who is God in the midst of us. Praise

SPECIAL ORGAN RECITAL

Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, has arranged the following program for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, November 24, at 4:00 p.m., in the University Chapel. Mr. Broadhead will be assisted by the Glee Club of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

Johann Nicolaus Hanff — War Gott Nicht Mit Uns Diese Zeit
Erbarm Dich Mein, O Herre Gott

These two chorales were written by Hanff, one of the lesser known but excellent German composers in the period immediately preceding Bach. He lived from 1630 to 1706 in Schleswig.

Francesco Gasparini — Mass in G
Kyrie Eleison
Gloria in Excelsis

Johann Sebastian Bach — Prelude and Fugue in A Minor

Credo in Unum Deum
Sanctus Dominus Deus
Agnus Dei

"Gasparini's Mass for 3 Canti, 2 Alti and Organo is one of the few examples of a complete mass written for high voices and figured bass. The work was presumahly composed for the capable women singers of the Ospedale della Pieta at Venice." (Hans David.)

Gasparini (1665-1729) was a contemporary and close friend of Alessandro Scarlatti, and the teacher of the latter's son, Domenico. He wrote numerous operas and works for orchestra, and a treatise on playing from figured-hass which is still standard. This mass, written over a century after the close of the period of Palestrina and his fellows, is much less tinged with secularism and operatic show than were most of the works of its time, and presents many moments of the highest religious exaltation.

Joseph Bonnet — Variations de Concert

Born in 1884 Bonnet is at present making an extensive tour of the United States. He is one of tbe outstanding composers and organists of France today.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, has arranged the following program for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoou, Deeember 1, at 4:00 o'clock, in the Duke University Chapel. This program is the last in Mr. Broadhead's Fall scries of organ recitals. The winter series will begin February 2, 1941.

Johann Sebastian Bach — Air from Orchestral Suite in D
Prelude and Fugue in B Minor

Bach wrote four suites for orchestra, the form following the customary suite-form of the early eighteenth century. This Air is the second movement, the one generally known as the Air for the G string.

Baroque art is now considered too frequently in a sympathetic light today. There are too many frills and too few simple lines of direct appeal. In music, however, the baroque style is considered with more favor. Bach's music, especially for the organ, is the highest example of good baroque. In this prelude, conceived in the composer's mature years, the delicate tracery immediately brings to mind the many lacy lines of Gothic architecture. The fugue shows a definite, massive foundation comparable to the massiveness of a cathedral.

Robert Schumann — La Nativité

This lovely tale of the Christmas story, with more feeling than most French music, came from France only a short time before the outbreak of the present war.

Healey Willan — Introduction, Passacaglia, and Fugue

Born in England in 1880, Willan came to Toronto in 1913 where he quickly rose to the position of one of the best musicians in Canada. He is unquestionably in the highest rank of composers on this continent today. He is particularly interested in Gregorian music and its use in the Anglican service. He has written numerous anthems, cantatas, and organ works, of which this is an outstanding example.

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud.

To Thee, My God, I kneel and pray.

Soloists—Mr. King, Mr. Slocum, Mr. Sink, and Mrs. Stanley

Nowell! Nowell! Sing we clear!
Holpeu are all folk on earth, Born is God's Son so dear.
To Bethlem did they go, The Shepherds three: To Bethlem did they go,
To see wbe'r it were so or no, Whether Christ were born or no—to set men free.
Masters, in this hall, Hear ye news today

Brought over sea, And ever you I pray.
Nowell! Nowell! Sing we clear!
Holpen are all folk on earth, Born is God's son so dear.
Then to Bethlem town did the Shepherds go, and in a sorry place
Heard the oxen low. Therein did they see a sweet and goodly May,
And a fair old man; Upon the straw she lay.
And a little child On her arm had she.
'Wot ye who this is?" Said the hinds to me.
Ox and ass him know—kneeling on their knee:
Wondrous joy had I This little Babe to see.
Nowell! Nowell! This is Christ the Lord, Master, be ye glad!
Christmas is come in, And no folk should be sad.
Nowell! Nowell! Sing we clear! Holpen are all folk on earth,
Born is God's Son so dear.

Hymn—O Little Town of Bethlehem (St. Louis) Redner

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—They Sang That Night in Bethlehem Schubert-Deis

Jesus' mother rocked her baby gently,
Singing sweetly in the night, alone;
Guardian angels watched intently, Singing Gloria in harmonious tone.
Kings and shepherds heard from far the singing, pointing them the way;
All their presents gladly bringing, They discovered where the Christ-child lay.
Then they, kneeling, gazed in adoration As the infant gently slumbered there.
Saw in Jesus their salvation; Then their singing filled the crystal air.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"A Good Home in a Bewildered World"

Dean of the Chapel, Princeton University,
Princeton, N. J.

Chorus numbers following will include "Glory to God," "Cantique de Noel," "The Birthday of a King," "Jesus, Rest Your Head," "Sing, O Heavens," and "Hallelujah Chorus" by Handel.

Lord, in this hour of tumult, Lord, in this night of fears,
Keep open, oh, keep open My eyes, my heart, my ears.
Not blindly, not in hatred, Lord, let me do my part;
Keep open, oh, keep open, Dear Lord, My eyes, my mind, my heart!
Hear Thou my pleading, Hear Thou my prayer! Lord,
Hear Thou my pleading Lord God, Hear Thou my pleading,

When wilt Thou save the people? O God of Mercy, when?
Not kings and lords, but nations! Not thrones and crowns, but men!
Let them not pass, like weeds, away.
Their heritage a sunless day. God save the people!
Strength aiding still the strong?
Is it Thy will, O Father, That man shall toil for wrong?
"No," "No," Thy skies; Man's clouded sun shall brightly rise,
And songs ascend, instead of sighs.
God save thte people! When wilt Thou save the people?
O God of mercy when? The people, Lord, the people,
Not thrones and crowns, but men!!
God save the people, Thine they are,
Thy children as Thine angels fair;
From vice, oppression, and despair, God save the people!

Hymn—Once to Every Man and Nation (Tong-Botel) Welsh Hymn Melody

Offertory Anthem—In the Night Christ Came Walking N. Cain

In the night, Christ came walking, on the angry waves,
In the night, on the sea, in the night, Christ came walking,
In the night, Christ came walking, on the angry waves, in the night, on the sea.
"Lord, if it be Thou, Bid me come to Thee upon the waters,
Bid me come to Thee on the waters, on the waters."
And Jesus said, "Come, come."
And Peter walked on the sea.
But when he saw the waves, he was afraid, and, in fear
Lest he should perish, called, "Lord, save me."
And Jesus put forth His hand and rescued him from the sea.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, has arranged the following program for the organ recital to be given on Sunday afternoon, February 9, at 4:00 o'clock, in the University Chapel:

PASSACAGLIA SERIES NO. 2

Paul de Maleingreau — Suite for Organ, Op. 71
Choral prelude
Intermezzo
Musette
Toccata

Born at Trélon en Thiérache, Belgium, in 1887, Maleingreau was a pupil of Edgar Tinel at the Brussels Conservatory, where later he taught harmony. In 1921-22 he played the entire organ works of Bach in a series of recitals at Brussels.

Gustave Samazeuilh Prelude

This impressionistic piece was written hy a French composer born at Bordeaux in 1877. He was a pupil of d'Indy at the Schola Cantorum and a critic for La République Française.

Peter Ilich Tchaikowsky Canzonetta from the Violin Concerto

Frederic Chopin Prelude in E Minor

Johann Sebastian Bach Passacaglia and Fugue in C Minor

The word passacaglia brings to mind first of all, the great work of Bach in that form. Since the eighteenth century there have been many compositions of this type but none has been able to surpass this one in the wealth of ideas, in the skillful technique of counterpoint, in the emotional depth and growth, in short, in sheer beauty or in pure art. One might risk labeling this tbe greatest of organ compositions.

The theme is extremely simple following the line of the C-minor chord and ending with the lowest pedal note of the instrument. The rhythm is three-fourth time, the accent falling on a half note alternating with a quarter note on the third beat of each measure. The opening variations are slow and quiet in character getting successively faster and more exciting till a great climax is reached where the bombarde states the theme. There is then a rather sudden change to a more enquiring mood in which several variations offer the opportunity to display the lighter and more scherzo-like stops. The final climax, coming rather soon, is characterized hy tortuously interweaving counterpoint.

The fugue is one of few which has been built upon two themes stated simultaneously and developed together throughout the work. One theme is the first section of the passacaglia theme transferred to the fugue. The other, seeming to be subordinate to the first mentioned, but in reality of equal importance to it, consists of series of eighty notes separated hy rests at the main accent of each measure, the identical point which is most important in the first theme. Thus Bach has succeeded in presenting the two themes at tbe same time keeping each distinct as well as distinctive.

There will be special musical selections

DR. FRANK S. HICKMAN, Presiding Minister

Organ—Entree pontificale Bossi
Ave Maria
Resignation

Call to Worship—May the Words of My Mouth James H. Rogers

May the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart
Be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.
Amen.

Hymn—O God, Our Help in Ages Past (St. Anne) Croft

Prayer—(With the Congregation Joining in the Unison Prayer and in the Lord's Prayer)

Unison Prayer:

Our Father, we confess our lack of faith in Thee. We have built on false foundations: grant us forgiveness and restore us to confidence in Thee alone.

We have allowed indifference and hate to creep into our relationships with our fellows. Make us ashamed, O God, of our lack of love. Deliver us from hatred of our enemies, as we learn to hate the evil in men's hearts and deeds, and in ourselves.

We thank Thee, Our Father, for the spirit of courage and hope in countries where conditions are at their worst; that, even under destruction and oppression the will to rebuild for the future is strong.

Grant that our student movements may rise to the opportunities, needs, and obligations before them; that individual student leaders may be strengthened in their own faith; that students in universities and schools and those by war forced from them, may be challenged to find the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Anthem—Arise, My Soul from "The Evangel of the New World" Van Denman Thompson

Arise, my soul, arise, Put off thy guilty fears;
The bleeding sacrifice In my behalf appears;
Before the throne my Surety stands, Before the throne my Surety stands.
My name is written on His hands.

He ever lives above, for me to intercede;
His all-redeeming love, His precious blood, to plead.
Five bleeding wounds he bears, Received on Calvary:
They pour effectual pray'rs, They strongly plead for me:
"Forgive him, O forgive," they cry, "Forgive, forgive," they cry,
"Nor let that sinner die, nor let that ransom'd sinner die."
The Father hears him pray, His dear anointed One.
He cannot turn away The presence of his Son;
The Father hears him pray, His dear anointed One.
He cannot turn away The Presence of His Son, his only Son.
My God is reconciled; His pard'ning voice I hear;
He owns me for his child; I can no longer fear.
With confidence I now draw nigh, with confidence I now draw nigh,
And "Father, Abba, Father," cry.

Hymn—Lead On, O King Eternal (Lancashire) Smart

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Lead Us Heavenly Father Quilter

Soloists: Messrs. Glenn, Hooper and King

Lead us, Heav'nly Father, led us, O'er the world's temptestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but Thee:
Yet possessing ev'ry blessing If our God our father be.
Saviour breathe forgiveness o'er us, All our weakness thou dost know.
Thou didst tread this earth before us, Thou didst feel its keenest woe.
Lone and dreary, faint and weary, Thro' the desert thou didst go.
Spirit of our God, Fill our hearts with heav'nly joy,
With pleasure that can never cloy: Thus provided, Nothing can our peace destroy. Amen.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
What'er the gift may be,
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, has arranged the following program for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, February 16, at 4:00 o'clock, in the University Chapel:

PASSACAGLIA SERIES NO. 3

Garth Edmundson Passacaglia
Silence Mystique

Garth Edmundson is a young American composer of Newcastle, Pennsylvania, who has published a great number of organ and choral works of high quality. These numbers are from a suite called Impressions Gothiques.

The theme of the Passacaglia follows the traditional practice of three-fourth time, the minor mode, and an eight-measure sentence. This theme is used twenty-two times in a well-developed movement. The usual gradual increase in tempo by the use of shorter note value is used in the first eight variations. At the ninth the tempo itself is increased and a canonic imitation is introduced. The thirteenth variation gives up the contrapuntal devices and uses choral changes in a regular rhythmic pattern. The speed increases to the last variation which is followed by a short coda of massive chords.

Johann Sebastian Bach
March from "Dramma per Musica"
Sinfonia to "Lord, For Thee My Spirit Longs"

These are short instrumental movements taken from the cantata of Bach. The first is quite unlike most of Bach's works; it is very rhythmical and entirely harmonic in its structure. The second displays a beautiful melody with great simplicity.

Edward MacDowell Scotch Poem

Camille Saint-Saëns The Swan

Julius Reubke The Ninety-Fourth Psalm
Grave; Larghetto-Allegro con fuoco
Adagio
Allegro—Allegro assai

One of the greatest organ compositions of the middle of the nineteenth century this sonata was written by Julius Reuhke, 1834-1858, a pupil of Franz Liszt. The three movements were inspired by verses from the Bible and are constructed upon two themes which occur in different forms in all of the movements.

Grave

1 O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself.
2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth; render a reward to the proud.

Larghetto-Allegro con fuoco

3 Lord, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?
6 They slaw the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.
7 Yet they say, the Lord shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

Adagio

17 Unless the Lord has heen my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.
19 In the multitude of my cares within me thy comforts delight my soul.

Allegro—Allegro assai

22 But the Lord is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge.
23 And he shall hring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea the Lord our God shall cut them off.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON RECITAL

The following program has been arranged by Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, February 23, at 4:00 o'clock, in the University Chapel:

PASSACAGLIA SERIES, NO. 4

Seth Bingham Suite for Organ
Cathedral Strains
Intercession
Toccata

Bingham, an American organist, teacher, and composer, studied theory with Parker, composition with d'Indy, and organ with Widor, Guilmant, and Jepson. He is a graduate of Yale and taught there for a number of years before going to Columbia University as associate professor of composition.

Joseph Rheinberger Passacaglia from Sonata VIII

The native land of Rheinberger was that tiny principality at the eastern boundary of Switzerland, Liechtenstein. Most of the composer's life was spent at Munich where he died in 1901. He gained wide celebrity as a teacher and esteem as a composer, but his organ compositions practically alone among his works still retain their high rank through their largeness of conception and ingenious craftsmanship.

This passacaglia is written in three-fourth time in E minor. The eight-measure theme recurs twenty-four times, closing with a short coda. After the original solo statement the work gets under way with several variations in three or four voices using eighth-note rhythm. At the sixth variation are introduced triplets to each beat, and at the eighth variation the theme moves into the soprano voice. The tempo is increased by the use of sixteenth notes in the thirteenth variation, while a choral treatment occurs in the fifteenth. For a short time the theme is somewhat disguised in the upper parts but returns in the pedal part with a simple style near the end. The coda makes a thematic reference to the first movement of the sonata.

O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind, The way to please Thee we would find.
Whate'er we have, it comes of Thee,
O let us ever near Thee be, O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind.

O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind, Who came to earth the lost to find.
Who died to save us on the tree, Our hearts are filled with love to Thee,

Unseen by keenest eyes of mortals!

ORGAN RECITAL—SUNDAY, MARCH 9

The following program has been arranged for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, March 9, at 4:00 p.m., in the University Chapel, by Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist:

PASSACAGLIA SERIES NO. 5

Johann Sebastian Bach Toccata and Fugue in D Minor

Quite the most popular of the great organ works of Bach, this Toccata and Fugue were written while the master was organist at Weimar. The Toccata is exceedingly dramatic in character, a splendid example of the early keyboard composers in the use of heavy chords among scintillating scale passages. After the Fugue, with its rather common subject, the brilliance of the Toccata returns to bring the work to a theatrical close.

Seth Bingham Passacaglia

Published in 1939 this Passacaglia is a sample of the interest of American composers in this ancient and respected form. The theme is eight measures long, the rhythm is triple, and the key is E minor, all traditional in treatment. Of the twenty-nine variations, eleven present the theme on the manuals, whereas the usual custom is to keep it in the pedal with only two or three statements in the manual parts. There are few novelties employed in the working out of this form, yet the atmosphere created is distinctly American. The composer makes use of a gradual increase in tempo and in volume to build to a climax twice. There is a staccato variation, one with a canon between the soprano and pedal voices, and several occasions where the theme is somewhat disguised by ornamentation. The Passacaglia is reduced in volume and tempo to come to a very quiet and calm ending.

Ralph Kinder In Springtime

Nicolai Rimski-Korsakov Song of India from "Sadko"

Edward Elgar Sonata in G
Allegro maestoso
Allegretto
Andante espressivo
Presto

Although Elgar was an organist, he wrote little for the instrument. His style seemed to be more orchestral, and the sonata shows this tendency decidedly. Having lived largely in the later part of the nineteenth century Elgar is unquestionably a romantic composer, and quite probably the greatest English composer of his time.

The first movement is in sonata-form, the two main themes well contrasted. The style is suited only to a modern organ with its rich and warm colors. The second movement floats like a gossamer web against fresh spring grass. The third is a tender love song drifting across a tropical moonlit bay. The last movement is not a grand climax but rather a dance of dawn.

Jesus, Thou joy of loving hearts, Thou Fount of life, Thou Light of men,
From the best bliss that earth imparts We turn unfill'd to Thee again.
We turn unfill'd again. We taste Thee. O Thou living Bread,
And long to feast upon Thee still; We drink of Thee, the Fountain Head.
And thirst our soul from Thee to fill, Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood;
Thou hearest them that on Thee call, To those that seek Thee Thou art good.
To those who find Thee all in all, O Jesus, ever with us stay,
Make all our moments calm and bright;
Chase the dark night of sin away, Send o'er the World Thy holy Light.
Come, Thou, Joy of loving hearts, Ever, ever with us stay;

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

The following program has been arranged for the organ recital to be given Sunday afternoon, March 16, at 4:00 p.m., in the University Chapel, by Edward Hall Broadhead:

Johann Sebastian Bach Concerto in G
Allegro
Grave
Presto

At the close of the seventeenth century the great Italian violinist, Vivaldi, wrote a number of concerti for two violins, cello, and string orchestra. The form intrigued Bach, who took the thematic material and suggestions of the form and created what he termed organ concerti. It is not difficult to trace the use of three-part writing, especially in the slow middle movement.

Richard Wagner Liebestod from "Tristan and Isolde"

Alexander Russell Song of the Basket-Weaver

An old French-Canadian woman sits at the door of her cabin singing a song of long ago, while her deft fingers fashion a basket of river grasses.

Healey Willan Introduction, Passacaglia, and Fugue

This composition is a masterful work of art. The spirit of the music is established with the opening chords of the introduction and is enhanced to the end without digression. The skill in working with the passacaglia theme, a melody unusual in itself, is shown throughout. The technique in a composer's detail is distinctive. Added to these qualities is the indispensable use of emotional character which makes the piece stimulating to both the senses and the intellect.

According to tradition, the theme is eight measures in length, in three-fourth time, and in the minor mode, E flat minor. The use of augmented seconds in this melody, and the clever rhythmic imitation give it a character of its own. The sixth variation is the only one where the theme leaves the pedal; here it climbs to a high range on very soft stops. Throughout the passacaglia it is pleasing and noteworthy to find counter melodies used in profusion which relieve the monotony of the constant repetition of a single idea. There is hut one climax which is tremendous and occurs in the seventeenth variation. This is followed by a transition passage, which takes one through one more variation with the melody broken up into fragments, to the fugue. The subject of the fugue is similar at the beginning to tbe passacaglia theme, the new four-fourth rhythm providing sufficient contrast until the theme winds out to a different conclusion. In turn the fugue builds to one great climax, is followed by a coda and then the nineteenth variation of the passacaglia.

PROFESSOR H. E. MYERS, Presiding

Organ Prelude—"Deck Thyself Out, Oh My Soul" Brahms

Call to Worship—May the Words of My Mouth James H. Rogers

May the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart
Be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.
Amen.

Hymn—O Worship the King (Lyons) Haydn

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—There Is a Green Hill Far Away Gounod-Wood
MRS. STANLEY, Soloist

There is a green hill far away, without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified, Who died to save us all.
We may not know, we can not tell Wbat pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us He hung and suffer'd there!
He died that we might be forgiv'n, He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to Heav'n, Sav'd by His precious blood!
There was no other good enough to pay the price of sin,
He, only, could unlock the gate of Heaven and let us in!
O dearly, dearly has He lov'd, And we must love Him too,
And trust in His redeeming blood And try His works to do.

Hymn—In the Cross of Christ I Glory (Rathburn) Conkey

Scripture

Anthem—A Legend Tschaikowsky

When Christ was young, in garden fair,
A rose-bush grew, tbat was his care,
He thought the roses bright and gay,
Would make a wreath for him some day.
The roses blossom'd fair to see.
When Juda's children, bold and free,
Stripped ev'ry bough of roses there,
And left the branches torn and bare.
"Where is thy crown, all roses gone?"
So cried the children full of scorn.
"Ye left not roses, but instead
The thorns for me," tbe Christ-child said.
And of tbe thorns a crown they made,
That rudely on his head they laid,
Upon his brow a glow was spread,
By drops of blood, not roses red.

Sermon—"Above All That We Ask" Dr. Frank S. Hickman
Dean of the Chapel

Benediction

Response—Sevenfold Amen Stainer

Organ Postlude—Premier Choral Andriessen

SPECIAL SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

At five o'clock Sunday afternoon, April 13, Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, will present an organ recital, featuring Bach's Easter solo-cantata. "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth." Mrs. Allen Stanley will be guest vocalist.

Following is the program:

Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina Ricercare

Girolamo Frescobaldi Toccata Cromatica

Palestrina was a member of the Papal Choir in the middle of the sixteenth century. Whereas the greatest number of his works are for unaccompanied chorus, there are a few organ numbers which are predecessors of the fugue, called ricercari.

Frescobaldi was organist of St. Peter's in Rome in the early seventeenth century. Both composers were associated almost entirely with the church, and their music is nearly all sacred in character. There is little music in existence which leads one more directly to the spirit of Christian worship than the best works of this early period.

Johann Sebastian Bach Solo-Cantata No. 160, for Easter
"I Know That My Redeemer Liveth"

Mrs. Stanley

Aria

I know that my Redeemer liveth.
He lives! In Him my heart rejoiceth.
Therefore I hear without complaining affliction, pain or sorrow, because my trust in Him remains unshaken.

Recitativo

He lives! From the dark grave He has arisen.
On this my faith shall stand firm as a rock that never can be moved, and all my hopes of life eternal.
My eyes o'erflow with tears when I recall that night in dark Gethsemane when our dear Saviour was betrayed.
Within my heart I feel the cruel blows and scourgings by Him so bravely borne.
Again I hear the shouts of mockery and hatred, as on His brow they place a crown, a crown of thorns.
Again I see the road to Golgotha, and, in midst of foes, beneath a heavy cross, I see the spotless Lamb, the Son of God.
As by His life He taught us how to live, so by His Death and Resurrection He triumphed o'er the grave and all its terrors.
And by His blood, so freely shed for me, my grief is turned to joy, to joy and gladness.
He died upon the cross that all my guilt and sin might be forever washed away.
Alone, with none at hand to guide, in paths of foolishness my footsteps strayed and I was well nigh lost.
But now, hope and strength return; I feel within my breast new life and joy awaken.
O Saviour may Thy life my pattern be in patient love and sweet humility.
Today, with hearts of thankfulness, we hail with gladness a risen Lord, a world set free.

Aria

O praise the Lord, my Saviour lives!
O'er death and hell victorious, He riseth King, all glorious.
For us He burst His prison, for us He is arisen, that we might share forever the love that faileth never.

Recitativo

Now fear and dread are cast aside. My Lord, my Saviour is my shield.
My trust in Him will be my sure foundation.
Yet all my faith were vain if from the grave He had not risen.
But now I know, since He again doth live, a way He has prepared, that I may follow Him and share eternal peace.

Aria

Now in readiness I wait.
Earthly joy and earthly state at His bidding I surrender
Come, bright angels, come in splendour, take my soul to dwell with thee;
Let me soon my Saviour see.
Ah! how gladly will I come to my everlasting home.

Olivier Messiaen Apparition de l'Eglise Eternelle

Hendrik Andriessen Premier Choral

Messiaen is a young French composer who was creating a great deal of organ music when the present conflict descended upon France.

Andriessen has been organist of the Amsterdam Cathedral for many years. This choral was completed in 1913.

It is fitting to close this vesper program with two stimulating works in the modern idiom which lead one to a closer communion with the spirit of Christ.

Voice of Mankind, sing over land and sea!
The long, long night is gone from Calvary . . .
The cross, the thong, the thorn;
The sealed tomb yields up its saintly guest,
No longer to be burdened and oppressed.
Heart of Mankind, thrill answer to His own!
So human, yet divine! For earthly love
He left His heavn'ly throne—For love like thine and mine—
For love of us, as one might kiss a bride,
His lips touched death's, all satisfied.
Soul of Mankind, He wakes—He lives once more!
Oh soul, with heart and voice, Sing!
The stone rolls slowly from the door!
Our Lord stands forth, Rejoice!
O gardenland of song and flow'rs;
Our King returns to us, for-ever ours!

Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
Because I have said these things unto you,
Sorrow, sorrow, sorrow hath filled your heart.
But he of good cheer; I have overcome the world.
Peace I leave with you, Peace I leave with you,
My peace I give unto you.

RALEIGH HIGH SCHOOL GLEE CLUB TO ASSIST MR. BROADHEAD AT ORGAN RECITAL SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, will give the following program at an organ recital Sunday afternoon, April 27, at five o'clock, in the University Chapel. He will be assisted by the Raleigh High School Glee Club, under the direction of Frederick Stanley Smith.

Johann Sebastian Bach Fugue in G Minor

This small fugue by the great master of organ is an excellent example of Bach's style. The fugal exposition, in which the subject is given a real answer where a less mature composer would have used a tonal answer, is followed by a section where the subject recurs in different keys alternating with short episodes. The total reaction to the work is one of satisfaction with a subject which is well displayed within the limits of this strict form.

Padre Martini Gavotta

One of the most erudite of musicians of the eighteenth century Martini is said to have possessed a library of some 17,000 volumes. His fame was European as a philosopher, theologian, teacher, and composer. He was cordial to Mozart who visited him at the age of fourteen.

Frederick Stanley Smith Introspection

It is a pleasure to include on this program an extremely attractive work by the director of the Raleigh High School Glee Club, who is Music Director of the Raleigh City Schools and Organist-Director of the First Baptist Church of Raleigh. For several years he has been one of North Carolina's outstanding musicians and composers.

Max Reger Consolation

Reger has written a great deal of fine organ music. He was without doubt the outstanding organ composer of merit at the opening of the twentieth century. This lovely soft melody is typical of the composer's skill to give just the right modern turn to his music.

Henri Mulet Carillon-Sortie

The Byzantine Church of Sacre Coeur in Paris was long served by the composer of this brilliant toccata.

Saviour, hear us when we pray. Keep us safely thro' this day,

Harold Cruickshank, Soloist

Lord God Almighty, Who shall not fear Thee,
Who shall not praise Thee For Thy great goodness,
Here in Thy presence we bow before Thee, O hear our prayer, and answer us.
O hear, Lord, and save us in Thy compassion,
O bear us and humbly grant Thy blessing to rest down upon us.
We come before Thee in all our weakness, With hearts of sorrow,
We bow before Thee, Lord God Almighty,
O Lord, Hear us, Thy children, Hear us and answer.
Hear us, O Lord, and save. Look upon us in great compassion,
Show us Thy mercy, Grant us Thine aid.
Lord God Almighty, Hear our ery.
Then we will praise Thee, Then will we glorify Thee
In songs of gladness evermore. Sing and rejoice, rejoice.

Open our eyes, O loving and compassionate Jesus,
That we may see to follow Thee, Jesus.
Jesus, Jesus our Saviour, Jesus our Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

Mr. Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, will give an organ recital Sunday afternoon, May 4, at 5:00 o'clock, in the University Chapel. He will be assisted by Mrs. Julia Wilkinson Mueller, violinist, and Mr. William Klenz, violoncellist.

Following is the program:

Johann Sebastian Bach Toccata, Adagio and Fugue in G Major

Of all the Bach organ works this is the only one with a slow movement between the toccata and the fugue. It is a very lovely melody conceived with a rhythmic accompaniment. The close is a transition which builds in ponderous, modernistic chords to a full cadence leading directly into the fugue. The subject of the fugue is rather long, but made up of several phases in imitation in a gay manner.

Johann Sebastian Bach Chorale: He Who Will Suffer God to Guide Him

Antonio Vivaldi Sonata in A Minor

Mr. Klenz

Johann Sebastian Bach Adagio from the Concerto for two Violins

Mrs. Mueller and Mr. Klenz

Louis Vierne Scherzo from Symphony II

There is no scherzo in all musical literature which is happier than this one. The suave melody which dominates the middle section is truly Gallic in character.

Max Reger Toccata in D Minor

Reger has often been called the modern Bach. His works are more polyphonic than most in this time and his style includes many toccatas, preludes, fugues and works in the forms of Bach.

Professor Rosenstock-Huessy has long been an advocate of a voluntary work camp program for the solution of sociological problems, the bridging of differences between men of many walks of life, and as a substitute outlet for the basic physical and emotional impulses that lead to war. This camp plan is linked with Professor Rosenstock-Huessy's conception of the social implications of Christianity which he will discuss.

ELEANOR FREEMAN SEYMOUR TO ASSIST EDWARD HALL BROADHEAD AT ORGAN RECITAL, SUNDAY, MAY 11

Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, will be assisted at the organ recital next Sunday, May 11, by Eleanor Freeman Seymour, mezzo-soprano. The recital will be held in the University Chapel at five o'clock in the afternoon.

Following is the program:

Johann Sebastian Bach — Fantasy and Fugue in C Minor

The calmness of the fantasy is typical of many of Bach's works of this title. One small motive which is introduced at the beginning serves to unite the entire movement. The fugue follows a pattern which is very effective in many fugues, the subject is introduced on rather soft stops, the middle section builds up gradually to a tremendous rhythmic and tonal climax which marks the final section.

Johannes Brahms — Chorale: O Blessed Jesu

Brahms wrote very little for the organ. The most important work is a collection of eleven chorales inspired by the Bach chorales.

\- - - - - - - - -

Richard Strauss — All Souls' Day

Giuseppe Verdi — Ave Maria from Otello

Serge Rachmaninoff — To the Children

Lily Strickland — At Eve I Heard a Flute

Nicolai Mednikoff — The Hills of Gruzia

MRS. SEYMOUR

\- - - - - - - - -

César Franck — Prelude, Fugue, and Variation

Of all the Franck organ works, this is one of the most direct in its appeal. The prelude is a melody beautiful in its simplicity with a regular rhythmic accompaniment. The variation is merely an elaboration in more flowing motion of the prelude.

Henri Mulet — Tu Es Petra

The full title exclaims "Thou art the rock and the gates of hell shall not prevail against Thee."

Adagio

Call to Worship—Prayer — Guion-Downing

Lord, in this hour of tumult, Lord in this night of fears,
Keep open, oh, keep open My eyes, my heart, my ears.
Not blindly, not in hatred, Lord, let me do my part;
Keep open, oh, keep open, Dear Lord, My eyes, my mind, my heart!
Hear Thou my pleading, Hear Thou my prayer! Lord,
Hear Thou my pleading! Lord God, Hear Thou my pleading,
Hear Thou my prayer Lord, in this hour of tumult,
Lord, in this night of fear, Keep open, oh keep open my ears.

Hymn—God the Omnipotent! (Russian Hymn) — Lvov

Prayer—(With the Congregation Joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Here on Earth from "Requiem" — Brahms
Soloist, C. S. HOOPER, JR.

Here on earth have we no continuing place, howbeit, we seek one to come.
Lo, I unfold unto you a mystery. We shall not all sleep when He cometh,
But we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the sound, the sound of the trumpet,
For the trumpet, the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised,
Be raised incorruptible, and all we shall be changed.
Then, then what of old was written, the same shall be brought to pass.
For death shall be swallowed, swallowed in victory, for death shall be swallowed, swallowed in victory, yea, in victory, shall be swallowed, shall be swallowed in victory!
Grave, where is thy triumph? Grave, grave, where is thy triumph?
Death, O where is thy sting, thy sting, death, O where is thy sting?
Grave, where is thy triumph? Death where, where is thy sting?
Where, where, where, where is thy sting?

Hymn—Love Divine, All Loves Excelling (Love Divine) — Zindel

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—From Thy Love as a Father from "The Redemption" — Gounod

From Thy love as a Father, O Lord, teach us to gather That Life will conquer Death:
They who seek things eternal Shall rise to light supernal
On wings of lowly faith.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
What'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord from Thee.

Dean Emeritus of the Divinity School

Benediction

Response By Choir — Broadhead
Hear our Prayer, O Lord, Grant us Thy peace. A-men.

MR. BROADHEAD TO GIVE ORGAN RECITAL SUNDAY, MAY 18

Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, will give an organ recital Sunday afternoon, May 18, at 5:00 o'clock, in the University Chapel. He will be assisted by Julia Mueller, violist and Robert B. Fearing, violinist.

Following is the program:

Johann Sebastian Bach — Fantasy and Fugue in G Minor
The G minor Fugue theme is perhaps one of the most famous of fugue subjects. It is longer than many and is constructed in six phrases consisting of two ideas, the first occurring four times and the second twice. Both ideas are so individualistic that any appearance of the subject material throughout the fugue is very easy to detect.

Max Reger — Benedictus
This short work of a religious nature is in a three-part form, the first slow and quiet, the middle section fugal and faster, and the third a brief reminiscence of the first.

. . . . . .

Johann Sebastian Bach — Arioso

Franz Schubert — Sonatina in D
Allegro molto
Andante
Allegro vivace

Sergei Rachmaninoff — Vocalise
MRS. MUELER

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart — Andante from Symphonie Concertante for violin and viola
MRS. MUELLER AND MR. FEARING

. . . . . .

Hendrik Andriessen — Third Chorale
The organist of Amsterdam Cathedral has written much excellent organ music in a dissonant modernistic vein. This chorale is one of the most acceptable to come from his pen.

PROFESSOR H. E. MYERS, Presiding

Organ—Our Father in Heaven — Bach
He Who Will Suffer God to Guide Him
I Call to Thee, Lord Jesus Christ

Call to Worship—Prayer — Guion-Downing

Lord, in this hour of tumult, Lord in this night of fears,
Keep open, oh, keep open My eyes, my heart, my ears.
Not blindly, not in hatred, Lord, let me do my part:
Keep open, oh, keep open, Dear Lord, My eyes, my mind, my heart!

Hymn—God of Our Fathers (National Hymn) — Warren

Prayer—(With the Congregation Joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—God of the Open Air — Noble Cain
Dedicated to the Chapel Choir of Duke University

These are the things I prize and hold of dearest worth:
Light of the sapphire skies, Peace of the silent hills,
Shelter of forest, Comfort of the grass, Music of birds,
Murmur of little rills, Shadows of clouds that swiftly pass,
And after the showers, The smell of flowers,
And of the good brown earth, And best of all,
And best of all, Along the way, Friendship and mirth.
Oh, So let me keep these treasures of the humble heart,
In true possession owning them by love.
And when at last I can no longer move among them freely,
But must part from the green fields and waters clean,
Let me not creep into some darkened room and hide;
And hide from all that makes the world so bright and clean.
But throw the windows wide to welcome in the light;
Then, while I clasp some well beloved hand,
Let me once more have sight of the blue sky
And of the smiling land! Then gently fall on sleep,
And breathe my body back to nature's care, my spirit back to Thee.
God of the open air, God, God of the open air!

Hymn—Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult (Galilee) — Jude

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Thou Art the Way — Carl F. Mueller
Dedicated to the Chapel Choir of Duke University

Thou art the Way, Thou art the Way, to Thee alone from sin and death we flee:
And he who would the Father seek, Must seek Him, Lord, by Thee.
Thou art the Truth, Thou art the Truth, Thy word True wisdom can impart;
Then canst inform the mind And purify the heart.
Thou art the Life, Thou art the Life, the rending tomb
Proclaims Thy conquering arm;
And those who put their trust in Thee Nor death, nor hell shall harm.
Thou art the Way, the Truth and the Life:
Grant us that way to know, That truth to keep, that life to win,
Whose joys eternal flow. Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord from Thee.

EDWARD HALL BROADHEAD TO GIVE ORGAN RECITAL

Edward Hall Broadhead, University Organist, has arranged the following program for the organ recital to be given next Sunday, May 25, at 5:00 p.m., in the University Chapel:

Andrea Gabrieli — Canzona

Girolamo Frescobaldi — Canzona IV

Johann Sebastian Bach — Canzona

The term canzoua was used originally as the name of a variety of lyric poetry in the Italian style. Musicallly it is applied to an instrumental piece written in more or less strict imitation. The opening of a canzona, which is in four-four time, is characterized by the rhythm of a half note followed by two quarter notes.

Luis Urteaga — Salida

Urteaga is one of the modern Spanish organ composers of note who have written many fine pieces for use in the church.

César Franck — Grande Pièce Symphonique
Andante serioso; Allegro non troppo e maestoso
Andaute; Allegro; Andante
Allegro non troppe e Maestoso

This great work was used by Franck as an experiment in composition in practice for his symphony. There are several features to be found here which are used with even greater skill in the symphony. A rather long introduction is followed by a main theme which is related to the main thematic motive of the symphony. The slow movemeut is telescoped with the scherzo making a large three-part form. Suggestions of all the important themes occur as a transition from the middle movement to the last. The main theme of the last movement is the main theme of the first movement changed from the minor to the major. As a whole the work attains a thematic unity not to be found in most works of a cyclic form.
